To whom it may concern,

I have been dealing with Richard Hampl from Fresh Commercial Cleaning for the past 16 months; during this time I have found Richard to be professional and courteous at all times. Richard is always easily accessible and deals with enquiries or requests in an extremely timely manner.

Their team of cleaners are very trustworthy, reliable and clean our two offices to a high standard.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Fresh Commercial Cleaning.

Yours sincerely,

Rebecca White
