We moved out of the central city as a result of the earthquakes and have been at a slightly more rural address at the end of Harewood Road since June 2011.

Following some disappointing cleaning franchise experiences I decided to appoint Fresh Commercial Cleaning in our new premises. I could tell when I spoke to Richard that he valued his good reputation and chose his staff accordingly.

Life is never without problems, but how they are dealt with is the important factor. I was confident he would deal with any problems quickly. That has proven to be the case. Queries by phone call or email are always responded to speedily.

I would have no problem in recommending Fresh Commercial Cleaning's service to others.
